Felicitating Deserving Winners

FOOD FROM INDIA IS TODAY AN IMPORTANT PILLAR OF ATMA NIRBHAR BHARAT AND 11TH CII FOOD SAFETY AWARDS CEREMONY SHOWCASED THE COUNTRY'S CAPABILITIES TO THE WORLD

The 11th CII Food Safety Awards Ceremony with The Economic Times as media partner was organised on December 18, 2020 to recognise role models and the best in class food business operators on food safety excellence and provide a framework for continual improvement.

The glittering award ceremony was organised virtually. Rita Teatota, chairperson, FSSAI graced the occasion as chief guest. She was joined by Dr Chindi Vasudevappa, vice chancellor, National Institute of Food Technology Entrepreneurship & Management (NIFTEM) under the Ministry of Food Processing Industries, Government of India; Dr Gyanendra Gongal, jury member, CII Award for Food Safety 2020 and regional adviser for Food Safety, World Health Organisation, Regional Office for South East Asia; Sridhar Dharmapuri, jury member, CII Award for Food Safety 2020 and lead, Regional Food Safety, FAO Regional Office for the Asia-Pacific; Dr Rajan Sankar, advisor nutrition - Tata Trusts, who were also part of the eminent jury panel, and Piruz Khambatta, chairman, CII Food Safety Awards Committee; chairman & MD, Rasna.

The virtual evaluation for the award followed a stringent four-stage evaluation methodology comprising technical assessment by trained food professionals, calibration by sector specific calibrators and a final round of evaluation by a distinguished jury. More than 100 man hours on an average are spent on assessment of each unit. The 1st National Awards for Sustainable Sourcing organised by Food Future Foundation with CII's Food and Agriculture Centre of Excellence (FACE) as the technical partner were also given away in this award ceremony.

It is heartening to note that despite the pandemic situation, CII's Food Safety Award programme 2020 went ahead as a virtual programme while retaining its robust approach in evaluating nominations for awards. I congratulate all the winners and the applicants who accepted the challenge to compete for the awards despite such difficult times. They are helping to take forward the food safety movement in the country.

RITA TEATOTA, chairperson, Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI)

VOICES

The CII Food Safety Award emphasises on recognising the best in class and a 'beyond compliance performance' in food safety. The training of assessors on maturity systems and the regular updation of evaluation criteria and methodology demonstrate the robustness of the process and ensures updating the Indian industry to benchmark levels of food safety. Congratulations to all the winners of the prestigious and coveted Food Safety Award and wish the standard setting will be emulated by other food processing companies.

DR CHINDI VASUDEVAPPA

Co-chairperson, Jury, CII Award for Food Safety, Vice Chancellor, NIFTEM

The National Award on Sustainable Sourcing is an innovative initiative to ensure responsible and sustainable sourcing, quality and food safety at the primary production level and across the supply chain. It coincides with the forthcoming UN Food Systems Summit 2021 which calls for sustainable and responsible food production considering environmental concerns.

DR GYANENDRA GONGAL

WHO, jury member, CII food safety awards

CII Food Safety Awards has become an institution in its own right. The industry waits for the same to celebrate the success of Indian food industry. Food from India is today an important pillar of Atma Nirbhar Bharat. And such events showcase our capacities to the world. Congratulations to all the winners.

PIRUZ KHAMBATTA

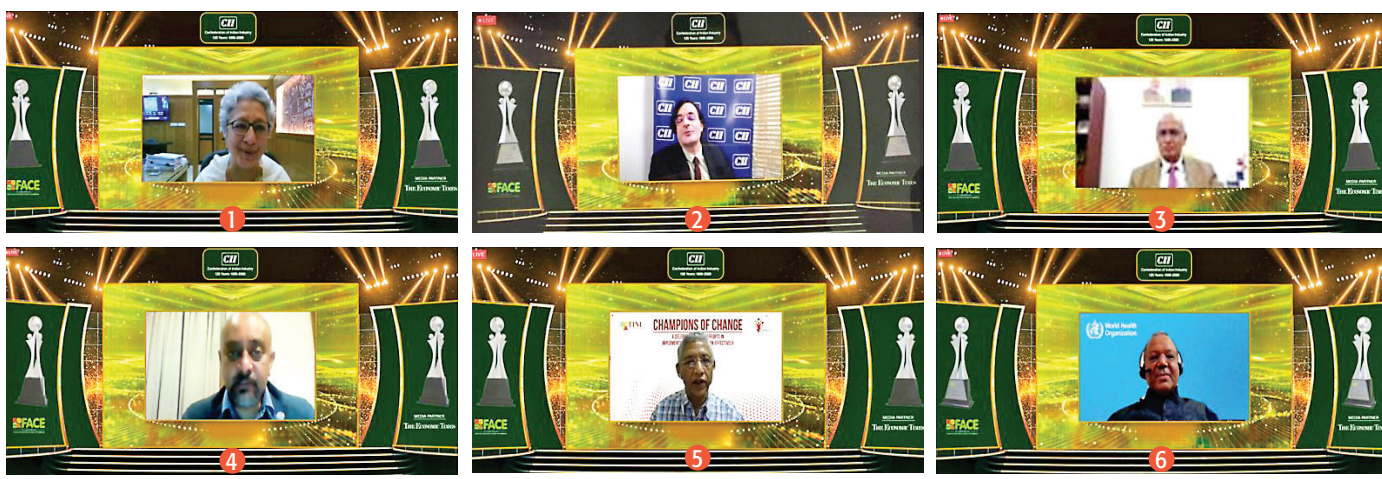

chairman, CII Food Safety Awards Committee; chairman & MD, Rasna

2nd CII Food Safety Kaizen Competition

The 2nd Food Safety Kaizen Competition was held virtually on December 11. This capacity building programme is aimed at identifying role models and cross learning on incremental food safety improvements which can be replicated by small and medium businesses. The distinguished jury felicitated the winners basis evaluation of key parameters like creativity, approach, benefits, replicability and employee involvement in the improvement projects.
